Ar. Gulberson's rendition of his very difficult and varied numbers proved him to be a singer of he small degree. It was the first accasion upon whielf a Talsa gudlence has had apportunity to hear him in a program of this character, and it is needless to say that it came up to highest expectations.

to say that it came up to highest expectations.

His singing of the prologue from laptacet, one of the most difficult open arise, for baritone, showed to the best advantage, not only the quality of his voice, but also its wide range and flexibility. Mr. Guiberson's stage presence in this particular number was such as to show his splendat ability in interpreting the different tocomes of which this number is composed. Miss Kimmons' accompaniments were artistic and were paniments were artistic and were rendered, as was her own part in the program, without notes.

Music lovers of this city who were disappointed in the failure of Mary Garden to fill her engagement at Muskogee October 18 as announced, will be pleased to know that Mme. Frances Alda, prima donna soprano and wife of Gatti-Casazza, conductor of the Mctrepolitan Grand Opera com-pany, has been secured by Mr. Grant Pauley for the evening of November 5. Mme, Alda will be supported by Frank La Forge, as plants and ac-companist, and Louis Siegel, violinist, A recent critical comment by the New York American comment by the York American concerning the apINFORMAL.

Mrs. J. H. Butler and Mrs. John W. Pyrd, Jr. entertained at the latter's home on West Canadian street Wednesday in honor of Mrs. D. H. Wilson.

Alt and Mrs. Wilson made many friends when they formerly liven in Vinita, and since their return from Talsa to make this their hormannin home, many dinners have been given in Mrs. Wilson's home. There were fitte more ladies, old trieffes of Mrs. H. O. McClare Friday after home. They wil expressed their joy at her teturn and gave her a delightful welcome.

The start had been a delightful welcome.

The entire house was beautifully deserted with counce and russes, and the dining room with longe red dallins and red satisfa, producing a most phasing effect. Mrs. Wilson wore a beautiful pink and white lace gown Mrs. Byrd was gowned in black lace. Mrs. Hallon, Mrs. Wilson word in black lace. Mrs. Hallon, Mrs. Council. here. Announcement—

The undersigned takes this opportunity to inform the Tulsa public, that he has returned to make his permanent residence here, and assume personal management of the Harlow Dry Goods Co. This announcement has been delayed, pending the rehabilitation of the stocks of some departments, which has been rapidly accomplished during the past thirty days.

Our patrons can visit our store now with a reasonable assurance that their wants can be satisfied. They can also be assured that the high standard of merchandising, of which the name "Harlow" was formerly synonymous, will be rigidly maintained. This will apply, not only to the character of the merchandise itself, but to the entire "personnel" of this store. I also wish to acknowledge with gratitude, the many personal assurances I have received of your good will. Yours sincerely,

C. V. HARLOW.
